

A vibrant illustration featuring the word "VILNUS" in large, bold, red letters. The letters are stylized, with the 'I' being a single vertical stroke and the 'L' having a horizontal bar. Below the letters, a small boy in an orange shirt and blue pants is painting the bottom of the 'U' with a paintbrush. Next to him, a girl in a yellow shirt and purple pants is painting the bottom of the 'L'. A brown dog with a red collar is running towards the right, pulling on its leash. The background is a bright green field dotted with numerous small, green, bushy trees that have faces on them. The overall style is colorful and whimsical.
